Navigating the Ferry from Split to Supetar

Welcome to the first step of your tranquil getaway at The Good Place Apartments in Sutivan! The journey to our serene retreat begins with a scenic ferry ride from Split to Supetar, the main entry point to the beautiful island of Brač. Here's what you need to know to ensure a smooth and enjoyable trip:

1. Ferry Location in Split: The ferry to Supetar departs from the Split Ferry Port (Split Port), located in the heart of the city. The port is easily accessible by public transportation, taxi, or car. If you're arriving from Split Airport, the port is approximately a 25-minute drive.
2. Ferry Schedule and Tickets: Ferries to Supetar run frequently, with multiple departures daily. We recommend checking the latest schedule online in advance as timings can vary seasonally. You can purchase tickets at the port or book them online for added convenience. Please note that booking a ticket online does not ensure you have a spot on the ferry, since boarding happens in order of arrival. During peak travel months, we advise arriving at least an hour before departure time to secure your spot.

Additional Note on Alternative Ferry Routes

While planning your journey to The Good Place Apartments, you may come across another ferry route option between Makarska and Sumartin. We would like to offer some guidance regarding this route:

Longer Journey & Inconvenient Schedule: Although this route appears as an alternative, it's important to note that the journey from Makarska to Sumartin, followed by the drive to Sutivan, is significantly longer. Additionally, the ferry schedule on this route is less frequent as the Split to Supetar route.

Navigation Systems Alert: Be aware that some navigation systems might suggest the Makarska-Sumartin route as a viable option. We advise against following this recommendation due to the extended travel time and less reliable ferry schedule.
